DoES Liverpool is a co-working office and Makerspace in Liverpool's Fabric District, used and run by an enthusiastic and diverse community.

Whether you're a home office worker looking for a change of scene, or a hobbyist inventor that needs a little push, you'll find a home at DoES.

Our co-working space provides hot-desks, which you can book from just half a day, and permanent desks to rent monthly, giving you flexibility as your needs change.

Whichever you choose, we have fully equipped meeting areas to support you - from our informal and beautiful exposed brickwork nook to our boardroom with three-quarter length windows and re-writable ideas wall.

If you need something larger, our dedicated events space is perfect for group workshops, training sessions, or presenting to an even bigger audience.
